"It is hard to put a value on my AISA membership. In the years that I've been a member, it has opened many doors for me with relationships and has helped me gain participation and strong involvement with the industry. The honour in which I was bestowed from my peers for AISA Cyber Security Professional of the Year 2020 has strengthened my belief even further in the value that we can bring together as members of AISA. AISA Membership definitely has value."

- Craig Ford, Brisbane
