10 career hacks I wish I learned in my 20s:

1. Choose your manager, not just the job.
A great boss grows you faster than a famous company.
2. Go for the tough roles.
You're ready before you think you are.
3. Don't just chase money.
Pick jobs that build your skills and reputation.
4. Be unique.
Create a personal brand that shows off your strengths.
5. Network smart.
Hang around people who push you to be better.
6. Learn from setbacks.
Every failure is a chance to grow even faster.
7. Dream big with your goals.
Aim high, push yourself, and adjust as needed.
8. Always be learning.
Invest time and money to improve yourself monthly.
9. Look after your health.
Staying healthy is key to long-term success.
10. Help others win.
Success comes from helping others succeed.

Use these hacks to power up your career.

- > Be bold.
- > Be smart.
- > Be focused.
- > Be persistent.

P.S. Repost for your network too 🌱. Thanks!

Absolutely agree Eric Partaker. Our companions significantly influence our personal and professional growth. They can shape our perspectives, inspire our decisions, and even alter our life trajectories. As Jim Rohn famously said, "You are the average of the five people you spend the most time with."
