Do you have a complex idea that you want to convey to a broad audience? Consider sharing it through storytelling.

"Because stories engage our emotions, the information that you share is more likely to be remembered."

Storytelling in Cyber Security. "...Stories engage our senses and emotions, and can connect our audiences to information differently".

The latest edition of the Australian Information Security Association \(AISA\) "Cyber Today" magazine has just been released. This edition includes an article based on my 2023 Canberra and Melbourne Cyber Security Conference presentations on "Storytelling in Cyber Security".
